

SUMMARY

Bushmakov A. V. Church revolution of 1917

Review on the monograph: P.G. Rogoznyi. Church Revolution of 1917 (higher clergy of the Russian Church in struggle for power in dioceses after the February Revolution). SPb.: Faces of Russia, 2008.

Key words: interim government, Church, Revolution, the Synod, Orthodox, 1917.

Belavin A. M., Ivanov V. A. On understanding existence of the Ugric problem in the Kama Region and the Cis-Ural Region

The article is a response to the review by A. F. Melnychuk and G. N. Chagin on the first chapter of the monograph by A. M. Belavin, V. A. Ivanov, N. B. Krylasova "The Ugric of the Cis-Ural Region in Antiquity and the Middle Ages" (Ufa, 2009).

Key words: Cis-Ural Region, Perm Krai, the Ugric, Voguls, onomastics, paleodemography.

Chagin G. N. Birds and animals, gods and spirits of Bronze Art of the Riphean Mountains

The history of background work of publication of the album-catalogue "Chudskoy antiques of the Riphean Mountains: the Animal style of Perm", issued in 1988 in "Art of the Kama Region" is presented.

Key words: the Animal style of Perm, the Kama Region, the Ural, the Art.

Goldina R. D. Archaeological School of Perm State University is 65 years old

The article presents outline of work of Scientific School of Archeology and the Kama Archeological Expedition of Perm State University, founded by the outstanding archeologist, scientist and pedagogue O. N. Bader.

Key words: school of archeology, the Kama Archeological Expedition, Ural archeology, Perm State University.

Golovchanskiy G. P., Melnichuk A. F., Rublev A. V., Skorniyakova S. V. Chashkinskoe II settlement – unfortified largest monument of Rodanovo culture in the Upper Kama Region

The author analyses artifacts of the unfortified largest settlement of Rodanovo culture in the Central Trans-Urals, engaged in metallurgy and metalworking.

Key words: Rodanovo culture, Middle Ages, ferrous metallurgy, production facilities.

Gritsay L. A. Life of a Russian family in late XIX–early XXth centuries in various social classes: historical and cultural aspect

The article discusses daily life of a Russian family in the late XIX–early XXth centuries in the aspect of class stratification of the society of Imperial Russia. The national concept of a family unit and its change in new social and cultural contexts are studied.

Key words: family life, class stratification of society, an ideal of marital behavior, national mentality, axiological bases of culture.

Korchagin P. A. Outline of Early History of Perm the Great: Permskiy and Vymskiy Princes

In Russian historiography till the middle of the XXth century the problem of autochthonic origin of Permskiy and Vymskiy princes was not called in question. Publication of the Vychegodsko-Vymskiy annals, containing the copyist's errors, for some time made investigators refuse from this point of view. Recently the majority of researchers have returned to traditional views, which determine the definition of Vym as "a patrimonial nest" of the Ermolichs, to specify the date and circumstances of their appointment as deputies, to identify their special mission assigned on Komi princes at their christening.

Key words: Perm the Great, Cherdynskiy commemoration book, Vychegodsko-Vymskiy annals, princes Permskiy and Vymskiy, "a patrimonial nest", christening.

Korenjuk S. N., Melnichuk A. F., Pereskokov M. L. Burial ritual of late part of Mokino burial ground in the Middle Kama Region (on archeological data of 1994)

Evolution of a burial ritual in the Middle Kama Region on the verge of the early Iron Age and the Middle Ages is analysed on the archaeological excavation data of the late part of Mokino burial ground.

Key words: burial ground, burial ritual, ritual of detoxication of the buried, cremation, interment, burial mound.

Lapteva M. P. Interdisciplinarity as a methodological phenomenon

Review on the book: O. S. Porshnev. Interdisciplinary methods in historical and anthropological studies. Ekaterinburg, 2009.

Key words: methodology, methods, interdisciplinary synthesis, historical anthropology.

Lomonosov M. Yu. Albanian-Slavic Contacts: Crises, Historical Myths and Crises Production

The author examines a dramatic story of Albanian-Slavic contacts in the focus of ethnic and historical mythology. The article is focused on the mythologem of “sworn enemy” in the history of the Balkans on the example of “the struggle for Kosovo”. The positions of the Albanian and Serb elites in the conflict are compared.

Key words: the Balkans, Slavs, Albanians, Illyrians, Kosovo Crisis, historic myth, ethnic elites.

Lychagina E. L. Problems of Chronology of the Neolithic-Early Eneolithic of the Kama Region

Recent radiocarbon dating of Neolithic monuments in the Upper and Central parts of the Kama Region allows dating the Neolithic time frame in this region back to the second half of 6000 BC-beginning of 4000 BC. As Novoilinskiy culture of the Early Eneolithic can be dated back to the end of 5000 BC-beginning of 3000 BC, the turn of 5000 BC-4000 BC can be defined as a period of coexistence of Late Neolithic and Early Eneolithic monuments on the territory of the Kama region.

Key words: Neolithic, Eneolithic, chronology, radiocarbon dating, the Kama Neolithic culture, Novoilinskiy culture.

Makarov E. Yu., Melnichuk A. F., Tretyakov D. V. New Medieval archaeological antiquies near Chyormoz of Perm Krai

New early medieval artifacts found recently near a well-known tribe center of Rodanovo culture in the ancient town Anushkar are analysed. Special attention is paid to the articles that date back to the times of Ancient Russia among which the brightest artifact is the Carolingian sword.

Key words: Rodanovo culture, ancient town, Anushkar, burial ground, jewelry, weapon.

Malakhova T. V. Woman’s status in family and society at Weimar Republic period

Specificity of gender policy in the Weimar Republic is revealed in the article on the basis of analysis of mechanisms of regulation of gender asymmetry in the German society of the 1920-s. Dynamics of domestic and demographic policy as well as political activity of women is traced. Foundations of gender policy towards the Semitic minority in the context of German racism are investigated.

Key words: Weimar Republic, Germany, gender, anti-Semitism.

Melnichuk A. F. Settlement Ust-Ocher I – Eneolithic Monument of the Okhansky Kama Region and problems of studying settlements in Novoilinskiy Cultural Centre

This study is devoted to a large Neolithic settlement in the Central Urals. The author analyses chronology and genesis of monuments of Novoilinskiy cultural centre in the Kama Region.

Key words: Novoilinskiy culture, “thumb” ceramics, Eneolithic, Bor culture, “chastye” type of pottery.

Melnikova O. M., Chernykh E. M. The Role of the Kama Archeological Expedition of Perm State University in History of Regional Archeology

An outline of work of the Kama Archeological Expedition of Perm State University as a socio-cultural phenomenon is presented. It reveals the role of the Kama Archeological Expedition in the history of Ural Archaeology.

Key words: school of archeology, the Kama Archeological Expedition, Ural archeology, Perm State University.

Mokrushin V. P. Research of the Middle Ages big villages in the south-taiga Kama Region

Analysis of archaeological data of the big villages (selishje) of Lasva I, Sevastiany and Svaly allowed to find out significant similarity of their substantive culture and proximity of time. By reason of poor inventory, the monuments date back to about V–VI centuries. The monuments refer to low-powered, no intense, cultural layer, which, probably, reflects a large scale migration of the population to the territories of the south-taiga Kama Region in 1000 B.C.

Key words: Lasva I, Sevastiany, Svaly; the south-taiga Kama Region; ceramics.

Novikova N. V. Women's History and modern gender roles: III International conference RARWH

The article presents an outline of the Third conference of the Russian Association for Research in Women's History (RARWH). The conference panels and papers give an idea of Russian scholarship in the field of interdisciplinary research of women and gender history, of acute problems and trends, highlighting its research agenda and methods.

Key words: Russian women and gender history, conference, association of researchers.

Pastushenko I. Yu. Hillfort "Strelka" – a monument of the early Middle Ages on the Middle Sylva

The author describes an original monument of the early Middle Ages found on the Middle Sylva – the hillfort "Strelka", reflecting artefacts and ethnic processes of inhabiting the Perm Kama Region.

Key words: hillfort, nevolinskiy culture, glyadenovskiy culture, ceramics, bone arrowhead.

Prudnikov A. Yu. On History of Eurasian idea: S. S. Malevskiy-Malevich and his project of Russian government establishment

In the article a political project drafted by S. S. Malevskiy-Malevich in the context of the ideas of the early Eurasian movement is analysed. Basic similarities and differences between the model of an ideal state, created by the ideologists of the Eurasian movement of the 1920-s–1930-s, and the one created by S. S. Malevskiy-Malevich are regarded. It is deducted that in his conception anti-Western and anti-Democratic ideas are less strongly expressed in comparison with the ideas of the early Eurasian movement.

Key words: S. S. Malevskiy-Malevich, N. N. Alekseyev, N. S. Trubetskoy, Eurasianism, "guarantee state", ideocracy, democracy.

Sarapulov A. N. Beginnings of Arable Farming on the Territory of Medieval Western Ural (on archaeological data)

The article is devoted to archaeological research of time of transition of inhabitants of the Permian Cis-Urals to arable farming. The issue of ways of arable farming penetration this region is examined. In the article it is proved that change of Economic and Cultural Type on the territory was determined by the migration of the Finnish and Slavic population to the region. Having analyzed the found items, two major groups of ploughshares, belonging to two different types of ploughs, were discovered.

Key words: agriculture, tips of arable tools, economic and cultural type, classification.

Serikov Yu. B. First Mesolithic Complexes on the River Sosva (Middle Trans-Urals)

Discovery of pure Mesolithic complexes of Northern Ural is of great interest. They will help researches to find out the origins of local Mesolithic and separate Mesolithic layers from mixed complexes traditionally, called the multilayer ones.

Key words: Mesolithic, single-layer monument, Northern Urals.